

The Three Marios and the Big Bad Pig.

Once upon a time the three Marios had to build a car. The first Mario built his car from leaves. The second Mario built his car from flowers. The third Mario built his car from metal. The first two cars are not very strong and it didn't take them very long. The third car was really strong and it took an hour and a half to build it.

The big bad pig said, "Little Marios, little Marios, let me drive your car." The first Mario said, "Not by the hair on my hat." The big bad pig said, "I'll break your car." And he did.

The big bad pig tried the flower car and he said, "Little Marios, little Marios, let me drive your car." The second Mario said, "Not by the hair on my hat." The big bad pig said, "I will break your car." And he did.

The big bad pig went to the metal car and he said, "Little Marios, little Marios, let me drive your car." The third Mario said, "Not by the hair on my hat." The big bad pig said, "I will break your car." And he didn't because it was strong. He came through the window and he banged his head. The big bad pig broke his head and he ran away. The three little Marios lived happily ever after.
